MEMORANDUM FOR: The Honorable Robert Cutler
Special Assistant to the President for National Security Affairs

SUBJECT: Status of Critical Intelligence Reporting System

In addition to the interim report on Communications Means Necessary for Timely Transmission of Critical Intelligence, dated April 28, 1958, which the Secretary of Defense and I are submitting to the National Security Council, I am also forwarding for your information some additional material which I am sure you will find helpful in assessing the status of this general problem.

One of these items is a report to the Intelligence Advisory Committee which was approved by it on 29 April 1958. The Intelligence Advisory Committee also approved a directive implementing the Critical Intelligence Reporting System and established a Standing Committee on Critical Communications to give continuing guidance to the communications authorities of the Department of Defense concerning our requirements for the transmission of critical intelligence. I am forwarding the results of the actions of the Intelligence Advisory Committee to the Secretary of Defense.

The other item that I am forwarding is a paper which has been used for briefing Secretary Quarles and myself.
